A man with a grey beard and mustache, wearing a light-colored traditional Korean jacket, sits on the right. A young woman with long dark hair, wearing a pink traditional Korean outfit, sits on the left. They are both looking at a large, thick book held between them. The book's cover is yellow and has the title '역사' (History) written vertically in black ink. The background shows a bookshelf with various books, including one labeled 'ENGLISH NOVEL' and another 'HISTORICAL BACKGROUND'. A desk lamp is visible on the left side of the bookshelf.
